

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US HISTORY #31-WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

office	job	economic	vote	social
politics	consumer	reform	suffrage	children

- ☐ 1. Some historians refer to the thirty years between 1890 and 1920 as the "Women's Era" because it was in that time that women started to have greater _____ and political opportunities.
- ☐ 2. And those _____ movements brought women into state and national politics before the dawn of the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 3. But the role of women in _____ did greatly expand during the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 4. The 1890s saw the dawning of the American mass _____ society and many of the new products made in the second wave of industrialization were aimed at women.
- ☐ 5. By 1920, _____ workers and telephone operators made up 25% of the female workforce while domestic servants were only 15%.
- ☐ 6. The idea that having a _____ is valuable just for the independence that it brings and as a form of individual expression was pretty radical.
- ☐ 7. Having or not having _____ is an issue for all women regardless of whether they went to college.
- ☐ 8. But their increasing involvement in _____ movements at the turn of the twentieth century led them to electoral politics.
- ☐ 9. The _____ movement was extremely fragmented.
- ☐ 10. So women's long fight to gain the right to _____ ended with the ratification of the 19th Amendment in 1920.

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US HISTORY #31-WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE

Directions: Write one thing you think you know about the topic.

1. _____
_____

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

- ☐ 1. Some historians refer to the thirty years between 1890 and 1920 as the "Women's Era" because it was in that time that women started to have greater _____ and political opportunities.
- ☐ 2. And those _____ movements brought women into state and national politics before the dawn of the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 3. But the role of women in _____ did greatly expand during the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 4. The 1890s saw the dawning of the American mass _____ society and many of the new products made in the second wave of industrialization were aimed at women.
- ☐ 5. By 1920, _____ workers and telephone operators made up 25% of the female workforce while domestic servants were only 15%.
- ☐ 6. The idea that having a _____ is valuable just for the independence that it brings and as a form of individual expression was pretty radical.
- ☐ 7. Having or not having _____ is an issue for all women regardless of whether they went to college.
- ☐ 8. But their increasing involvement in _____ movements at the turn of the twentieth century led them to electoral politics.
- ☐ 9. The _____ movement was extremely fragmented.
- ☐ 10. So women's long fight to gain the right to _____ ended with the ratification of the 19th Amendment in 1920.

Name _____

Date _____

Teacher: _____

Answer Key

US HISTORY #31-WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

office	job	economic	vote	social
politics	consumer	reform	suffrage	children

- ☐ 1. Some historians refer to the thirty years between 1890 and 1920 as the "Women's Era" because it was in that time that women started to have greater economic and political opportunities.
- ☐ 2. And those reform movements brought women into state and national politics before the dawn of the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 3. But the role of women in politics did greatly expand during the Progressive Era.
- ☐ 4. The 1890s saw the dawning of the American mass consumer society and many of the new products made in the second wave of industrialization were aimed at women.
- ☐ 5. By 1920, office workers and telephone operators made up 25% of the female workforce while domestic servants were only 15%.
- ☐ 6. The idea that having a job is valuable just for the independence that it brings and as a form of individual expression was pretty radical.
- ☐ 7. Having or not having children is an issue for all women regardless of whether they went to college.
- ☐ 8. But their increasing involvement in social movements at the turn of the twentieth century led them to electoral politics.
- ☐ 9. The suffrage movement was extremely fragmented.
- ☐ 10. So women's long fight to gain the right to vote ended with the ratification of the 19th Amendment in 1920.