

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #25 FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

private	amendments	hate	symbolic	employers
political	government	violence	speech	fire

- ☐ 1. The primary reason we have freedom of speech is to allow for public criticism of the stupid _____.
- ☐ 2. The second thing to remember is that the First Amendment protects you from the government doing things that try to deny your _____, but not anyone else.
- ☐ 3. If you work for a _____ company, your boss can certainly fire you for saying mean things about them or revealing company secrets, and you don't have any First Amendment claim against them.
- ☐ 4. The speech that gets the strongest protection is _____ speech.
- ☐ 5. The First Amendment does not protect a person who shouts " _____ " in a crowded theater.
- ☐ 6. _____ speech also includes burning an American flag, which pretty much is always a political message.
- ☐ 7. Public universities that try to punish _____ speech have seen their discipline code struck down.
- ☐ 8. Pretty much the only kind of speech that's not protected, other than speech that's likely to incite immediate _____, is what's called fighting words.
- ☐ 9. Most important, it only protects you from government action, not the action of private people, especially your _____.
- ☐ 10. The First Amendment, like all of the _____, is meant to protect us from an overreaching government.

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #25 FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Directions: Write one thing you think you know about the topic.

1. _____

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

- ☐ 1. The primary reason we have freedom of speech is to allow for public criticism of the stupid _____.
- ☐ 2. The second thing to remember is that the First Amendment protects you from the government doing things that try to deny your _____, but not anyone else.
- ☐ 3. If you work for a _____ company, your boss can certainly fire you for saying mean things about them or revealing company secrets, and you don't have any First Amendment claim against them.
- ☐ 4. The speech that gets the strongest protection is _____ speech.
- ☐ 5. The First Amendment does not protect a person who shouts " _____ " in a crowded theater.
- ☐ 6. _____ speech also includes burning an American flag, which pretty much is always a political message.
- ☐ 7. Public universities that try to punish _____ speech have seen their discipline code struck down.
- ☐ 8. Pretty much the only kind of speech that's not protected, other than speech that's likely to incite immediate _____, is what's called fighting words.
- ☐ 9. Most important, it only protects you from government action, not the action of private people, especially your _____.
- ☐ 10. The First Amendment, like all of the _____, is meant to protect us from an overreaching government.

Name _____

Date _____

Teacher: _____

Answer Key

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #25 FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

private	amendments	hate	symbolic	employers
political	government	violence	speech	fire

- ☐ 1. The primary reason we have freedom of speech is to allow for public criticism of the stupid government.
- ☐ 2. The second thing to remember is that the First Amendment protects you from the government doing things that try to deny your speech, but not anyone else.
- ☐ 3. If you work for a private company, your boss can certainly fire you for saying mean things about them or revealing company secrets, and you don't have any First Amendment claim against them.
- ☐ 4. The speech that gets the strongest protection is political speech.
- ☐ 5. The First Amendment does not protect a person who shouts "fire" in a crowded theater.
- ☐ 6. Symbolic speech also includes burning an American flag, which pretty much is always a political message.
- ☐ 7. Public universities that try to punish hate speech have seen their discipline code struck down.
- ☐ 8. Pretty much the only kind of speech that's not protected, other than speech that's likely to incite immediate violence, is what's called fighting words.
- ☐ 9. Most important, it only protects you from government action, not the action of private people, especially your employers.
- ☐ 10. The First Amendment, like all of the Amendments, is meant to protect us from an overreaching government.