

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US HISTORY #16-WOMEN IN THE 19TH CENTURY

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

abolitionist	alcohol	property	reform	suffrage
market	temperance	equality	slavery	colonial

- ☐ 1. In the _____ Era, most American women of European descent lived lives much like those of their European counterparts.
- ☐ 2. Since women weren't permitted to own _____, and it was a precondition for voting, so they were totally shut out of the political process.
- ☐ 3. The _____ Revolution had profound effects on American women, too, because as production shifted from homes to factories, it shifted away from women doing the producing.
- ☐ 4. The idea of true _____ between men and women was so radical that almost no one embraced it.
- ☐ 5. Many of the most famous advocates for legally prohibiting the sale of _____ in the U.S. were women.
- ☐ 6. The _____ movement made a huge difference in American life, because eventually, male and female supporters of it realized that women would be a more powerful ally if they could vote.
- ☐ 7. Many women were also important contributors to the anti-_____ movement.
- ☐ 8. Many women involved in the _____ movement, when studying slavery, noticed that there was something a little bit familiar.
- ☐ 9. The most visible manifestation of it was the issue of women's _____, raised most eloquently at the Seneca Falls Convention of 1848.
- ☐ 10. But by taking leading roles in the _____ movements of the 19th century, not just when it came to temperance and slavery, but also prisons and asylums, women were able to enter the public sphere for the first time.

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US HISTORY #16-WOMEN IN THE 19TH CENTURY

Directions: Write one thing you think you know about the topic.

1. _____
_____

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

- ☐ 1. In the _____ Era, most American women of European descent lived lives much like those of their European counterparts.
- ☐ 2. Since women weren't permitted to own _____, and it was a precondition for voting, so they were totally shut out of the political process.
- ☐ 3. The _____ Revolution had profound effects on American women, too, because as production shifted from homes to factories, it shifted away from women doing the producing.
- ☐ 4. The idea of true _____ between men and women was so radical that almost no one embraced it.
- ☐ 5. Many of the most famous advocates for legally prohibiting the sale of _____ in the U.S. were women.
- ☐ 6. The _____ movement made a huge difference in American life, because eventually, male and female supporters of it realized that women would be a more powerful ally if they could vote.
- ☐ 7. Many women were also important contributors to the anti-_____ movement.
- ☐ 8. Many women involved in the _____ movement, when studying slavery, noticed that there was something a little bit familiar.
- ☐ 9. The most visible manifestation of it was the issue of women's _____, raised most eloquently at the Seneca Falls Convention of 1848.
- ☐ 10. But by taking leading roles in the _____ movements of the 19th century, not just when it came to temperance and slavery, but also prisons and asylums, women were able to enter the public sphere for the first time.

Name _____

Date _____

Teacher: _____

Answer Key

US HISTORY #16-WOMEN IN THE 19TH CENTURY

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

abolitionist	alcohol	property	reform	suffrage
market	temperance	equality	slavery	colonial

- ☐ 1. In the Colonial Era, most American women of European descent lived lives much like those of their European counterparts.
- ☐ 2. Since women weren't permitted to own property, and it was a precondition for voting, so they were totally shut out of the political process.
- ☐ 3. The Market Revolution had profound effects on American women, too, because as production shifted from homes to factories, it shifted away from women doing the producing.
- ☐ 4. The idea of true equality between men and women was so radical that almost no one embraced it.
- ☐ 5. Many of the most famous advocates for legally prohibiting the sale of alcohol in the U.S. were women.
- ☐ 6. The temperance movement made a huge difference in American life, because eventually, male and female supporters of it realized that women would be a more powerful ally if they could vote.
- ☐ 7. Many women were also important contributors to the anti-slavery movement.
- ☐ 8. Many women involved in the abolitionist movement, when studying slavery, noticed that there was something a little bit familiar.
- ☐ 9. The most visible manifestation of it was the issue of women's suffrage, raised most eloquently at the Seneca Falls Convention of 1848.
- ☐ 10. But by taking leading roles in the reform movements of the 19th century, not just when it came to temperance and slavery, but also prisons and asylums, women were able to enter the public sphere for the first time.