

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #16 TYPES OF BUREAUCRACIES

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

commissions	economic	policy	lobby	union
corporations	resources	cabinet	independent	clients

- ☐ 1. The first type of bureaucracy is the _____-level agency, also called the executive department.
- ☐ 2. There are also _____ agencies that are very similar to executive departments because their heads require Senate confirmation.
- ☐ 3. Next we have the independent regulatory _____ which are supposed to be further removed from presidential oversight, which makes them independent.
- ☐ 4. Last, are the government _____ that are supposed to make profits but in fact tend to rely on government subsidies to stay afloat.
- ☐ 5. Some bureaucracies primarily serve _____.
- ☐ 6. One way agencies maintain the _____ is by collection revenue, because without money the county doesn't function.
- ☐ 7. A third function of bureaucracies is to regulate _____ activity, primarily by creating and enforcing rules and regulations.
- ☐ 8. Some bureaucracies have the primary function of redistributing economic _____.
- ☐ 9. Bureaucracies _____ for their own interests and the bigger and more important they are the more money they get from Congress.
- ☐ 10. The President, and especially Congress, will often rely on bureaucratic experts to tell them how a _____ will be implemented.

Name _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #16 TYPES OF BUREAUCRACIES

Directions: Write one thing you think you know about the topic.

1. _____
_____

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

- ☐ 1. The first type of bureaucracy is the _____-level agency, also called the executive department.
- ☐ 2. There are also _____ agencies that are very similar to executive departments because their heads require Senate confirmation.
- ☐ 3. Next we have the independent regulatory _____ which are supposed to be further removed from presidential oversight, which makes them independent.
- ☐ 4. Last, are the government _____ that are supposed to make profits but in fact tend to rely on government subsidies to stay afloat.
- ☐ 5. Some bureaucracies primarily serve _____.
- ☐ 6. One way agencies maintain the _____ is by collection revenue, because without money the county doesn't function.
- ☐ 7. A third function of bureaucracies is to regulate _____ activity, primarily by creating and enforcing rules and regulations.
- ☐ 8. Some bureaucracies have the primary function of redistributing economic _____.
- ☐ 9. Bureaucracies _____ for their own interests and the bigger and more important they are the more money they get from Congress.
- ☐ 10. The President, and especially Congress, will often rely on bureaucratic experts to tell them how a _____ will be implemented.

Name _____

Date _____

Teacher: _____

Answer Key

US GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS #16 TYPES OF BUREAUCRACIES

Directions: While watching the video, fill in the blanks.

commissions	economic	policy	lobby	union
corporations	resources	cabinet	independent	clients

- ☐ 1. The first type of bureaucracy is the cabinet-level agency, also called the executive department.
- ☐ 2. There are also independent agencies that are very similar to executive departments because their heads require Senate confirmation.
- ☐ 3. Next we have the independent regulatory commissions which are supposed to be further removed from presidential oversight, which makes them independent.
- ☐ 4. Last, are the government corporations that are supposed to make profits but in fact tend to rely on government subsidies to stay afloat.
- ☐ 5. Some bureaucracies primarily serve clients.
- ☐ 6. One way agencies maintain the Union is by collection revenue, because without money the county doesn't function.
- ☐ 7. A third function of bureaucracies is to regulate economic activity, primarily by creating and enforcing rules and regulations.
- ☐ 8. Some bureaucracies have the primary function of redistributing economic resources.
- ☐ 9. Bureaucracies lobby for their own interests and the bigger and more important they are the more money they get from Congress.
- ☐ 10. The President, and especially Congress, will often rely on bureaucratic experts to tell them how a policy will be implemented.